imitator

Disciple Now 2019

IMITATOR

The concept of imitation is alive and well all around us in culture today. Think for just a moment how much your friends imitate what you see on the internet, at the movies, and on TV. Think for a moment about how fashion, language, sports, dances, and even how they relate to you is an imitation from something or someone. BTW . . . it's alive and well in you too. We are who we imitate. This can be both a positive and a negative thing and it all depends upon who or what you are imitating. Are you aware that we are told in God's Word to be imitators and since we do imitate someone the important question is simply this:

WHO are you imitating?
