REVIVAL NOT SURVIVAL

Why? The most interesting question but not asked nearly enough.

Often, the only time we ask “why” is when we question one another's motives, intentions, or reasoning. We rarely ask why regarding our place, direction, or purpose in life. Why do you live in the northeast part of Houston? Why do you attend the middle school or high school that you attend? Why do you have the personality, gifts and/or talents that you possess? Why are you a member of certain clubs or teams? Why were you born into your specific family? Why are you part of the friend groups you are in? Why do you attend a particular church? What is your purpose in all of it?

The answers to those questions are important. It is time to discover the answers.
